Cheshire Cat

"But I don't want to go among mad people," Alice remarked.

*"Oh, you can't help that," said the Cat:
"we're all mad here. I'm mad. You're mad."*

"How do you know I'm mad?" said Alice.

"You must be," said the Cat, "or you wouldn't have come here."

*"If I had a world of my own, everything would be nonsense.
Nothing would be what it is, because everything would be what it isn't.
And contrary wise, what is, it wouldn't be.
And what it wouldn't be, it would. You see?"*

*"You couldn't have it if you did want it," the Queen said.
"The rule is, jam to-morrow and jam yesterday - but never jam to-day."
"It must come sometimes to 'jam to-day'," Alice objected.
"No, it can't," said the Queen. "It's jam every other day:
to-day isn't any other day, you know."*

The image features a highly detailed, symmetrical Art Nouveau border in a gold color against a dark brown background. The border is composed of intricate, flowing lines that form a complex, interlocking pattern of leaves, scrolls, and floral motifs. The central area is framed by a large, stylized floral or leaf-like shape that mirrors the overall design of the border.
